The Board of Supervisors proclaims the week of April 12-18, 2026 as Dispatcher Appreciation Week in Humboldt County. The Humboldt County Sheriff's Office Emergency Communications Center is staffed 24-hours a day, seven days a week by the county's dedicated Emergency Communications Dispatchers. It is the job of a dispatcher to answer incoming emergency and non-emergency telephone calls, operate the multi-channel radio system and perform records and warrant checks. They are the calm in the chaos and the Board would like to commend the county's incredible dispatchers who help keep the community in Humboldt County safe.
