Area of Focus: Core Services/Other

Strategic Plan Category: 9999 - Core Services/Other

DISCUSSION:

The Honorable Judge Kelly Neel will deliver a brief presentation to the Board of Supervisors and the community to provide an overview of the composition, role and responsibilities of the Civil Grand Jury.

The Civil Grand Jury serves as an independent oversight body composed of volunteers. Its primary purpose is to investigate and review the operations of local government agencies, departments and public officials, with a focus on promoting transparency, accountability and efficiency in public service.

This presentation offers a valuable opportunity to better understand how civic engagement and citizen oversight contribute to good governance at the local level.
