The Grange, founded in 1867 as the National Grange of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry, has played a vital role in strengthening rural communities, supporting agriculture and encouraging civic engagement. For 150 years, the California State Grange has carried forward these values, serving as a statewide forum for farmers, families and rural communities.

This year marks the 150th Annual California State Grange Convention, a historic milestone that highlights the organization's lasting contributions to California's agricultural and community life. Humboldt County is honored to host this gathering at Van Duzen Grange #517, welcoming delegates from across the state while providing an opportunity to showcase the county's agricultural heritage, natural resources and strong community spirit.
