RESOLUTION
OF THE
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF HUMBOLDT

WHEREAS, the Humboldt State University Child Development Laboratory was opened in 1968 as part of the Humboldt State College program in Child Development; and

WHEREAS, designed as practicum experience to help students integrate practice with developmental theory, the Child Development Laboratory has prepared generations of child development professionals to support children and families in diverse fields and programs; and

WHEREAS, being the first and longest-standing continually nationally accredited child care program in Humboldt County, the Child Development Laboratory has provided quality early educational experiences to generations of children in our community; and

WHEREAS, through the generosity of the Tschanz sisters, the Child Development Laboratory has provided students with the opportunity to work side-by-side with faculty who bring deep and diverse expertise in the field of Child Development; and

WHEREAS, the Child Development Laboratory has provided child development education and services to thousands of students, faculty, families and programs; and

WHEREAS, the Child Development Laboratory is one of 5 California State University laboratory schools to offer the intensive, reflective, practical training experience afforded by a laboratory school; and

WHEREAS, by providing quality child care and preschool education experiences, the Child Development Laboratory is vital to a healthy Humboldt County economy.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Humboldt County Board of Supervisors hereby congratulates

Humboldt State University Child Development Laboratory
On Its
50TH ANNIVERSARY

DATED: April 13, 2018

Ryan Sundberg, Chair
