Subject: Real World Realities

I routinely provide write-ups for Humboldt County Supervisors to read. If anyone like a Humboldt County Supervisor has not read what I provide, they are missing some pearls of wisdom from a seventy plus year old, field experienced, rural forester.

As an old fart and finding myself as one who does not believe all the hi-tech and other information thrown around, I see many real world realities coming true.

My dad said revolution was coming. I can see why he thought this way, and I can see World War III as a possibility

Being at the end of my lifetime, I can only hope something happens to change things before I leave this world.
