DISCUSSION:

In November of 2010 the name of California's Food Stamp Program became CalFresh. As part of program rebranding efforts, the California Department of Social Services is encouraging counties to work with their community partners to help conduct program informational and outreach activities to inform low-income children, families and seniors about CalFresh, including the name change and recent program changes. Many low income families and seniors do not apply for and are not even aware that they maybe eligible for CalFresh benefits.

Recent economic challenges have increased the attention and interest in supplemental food assistance. The U.S. Census Bureau reported that in 2010, 18% of children in Humboldt County were living in poverty. Approximately 8,000 families in Humboldt County currently receive supplemental food assistance from the CalFresh program. However, 40% of potentially eligible families are not receiving these CalFresh benefits. Many of those children, families and seniors reside in remote rural communities and may lack transportation or access to services. Many Community Based Organizations already operate and have developed relationships in those remote areas as well as working with specialized populations throughout the county. Outreach raises awareness of the nutrition benefits of the CalFresh Program and helps to dispel program myths and misperceptions.

With the execution of this agreement, DHHS would like to continue to foster relationships with our outreach plan partners and community organizations. Many of the organizations in the CalFresh Outreach Plan provide valuable assistance to eligible and potentially eligible households and help to relieve some of the administrative burden on the county by providing program information and application assistance. DHHS will be returning to the Board of Supervisors at a later date with a request to provide assistance to the California Center for Rural Policy in the development of a strategic plan addressing food insecurity and further enhancing CalFresh program outcomes.

FINANCIAL IMPACT:

Funds have been appropriated by the state for this purpose and use in Humboldt County. If this allocation is not fully utilized it could reduce future fiscal year (FY) allocations and thus impact this program.

The costs associated with this program have been budgeted in the approved Fiscal Year 2011/2012 Budget in Fund 1160, Budget Unit 511. Cost for this program will be budgeted in the FY 2012/2013 Budget in Fund 1160, Budget unit 511. There will be no impact to the County General Fund

OTHER AGENCY INVOLVEMENT:

Community Based Organizations

ALTERNATIVES TO STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS:

The Board can choose not to approve the agreement for the CalFresh Outreach and Support Grant with Community Based Organizations. This is not recommended as the Department of Health and Human Services feels that this funding is critical to the goal of increasing CalFresh participation and thereby improving the health and economic stability of children, families and other individuals of Humboldt County.
