Hello Abbie,

Thanks again for contacting me regarding the projected hearing date. At this time, my client is requesting that the appeal date be postponed by approximately six months (or longer if possible). This will allow my client time to pull together the resources necessary to fully address the identified issues. I would be happy to talk with you by phone if more information would be helpful in considering this request.

Regards,

Brad

Hi Brad:

The Staff Report is released the Friday before the hearing, so March 18th.

Thanks,
Abbie

Abbie,

Thanks very much for the update. Do you have an idea of when the staff report will be available?

Thanks again,

Brad
