Boulder County encourages the Planning Commission to deny the Local Coastal Development Permit and the Enforcement Permit for the Old Academy Road Improvement Project because it violates the County's Local Coastal Plan (Sections 2.18 and 2.20).
Four significant historic properties (the 1902 county clerk's school, the 1902 Temperance Hall, the 1911 George Reynolds Community Hall & the 1916 Larchmont "White House") are all associated with an extensive recorded archeological site at Reynolds Canyon. There are no proposed mitigations for the adverse effects to the Setting and historic "View North" of the Boardwalk as contained in the preliminary historic location.
1902 County Clerk School listed on the National Register of Historic Places.
