PROCLAMATION of the Board of Supervisors
County of Humboldt

WHEREAS, the nation's public libraries have served as transformative institutions that support life-long learning and provide free access to information to all regardless of class, color or creed; and

WHEREAS, the nation's public libraries meet the challenging and changing needs of their users by providing access to facilities, new and popular materials or expansion of services and programming to underserved communities; and

WHEREAS, this nation's public libraries offer a public space for the sharing of diverse ideas and points of views that help citizens better understand each other and themselves; and

WHEREAS, public libraries are staffed by trained professionals who compassionately serve people of all ages and backgrounds and help them find and interpret information they need to live, learn and work in a dynamic economy; and

WHEREAS, public libraries inhabit part of the American experience as places for self-education, exploration of personal opportunities, and access to information in its increasing varied formats; and

WHEREAS, public libraries, public librarians, public library workers and supporters across America are celebrating National Library Week with the theme "Libraries Transform."

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Humboldt County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims April 10th through April 16th, 2016 as National Library Week, and encourage all residents to visit their public library this week to take advantage of the wonderful library resources available at your library.

DATED: April 5, 2016
