DISCUSSION:

The Ink People have been bringing art and culture opportunities to individuals and groups from every walk of life for forty years. They have been instrumental in bringing together community resources for cultural development and creative collaborations on many artistic projects. 2019 marks the fortieth year of the Ink People’s service to our community. Therefore, the Board of Supervisors encourages all community members to join in the celebration of grassroots community arts, and their invaluable contribution to our quality of life.
