

County of Humboldt
Mobile Home Rent Stabilization Ordinance (MHRSO)
Rules and Guidelines

On December 13, 2016, the people of the County of Humboldt enacted by initiative a rent stabilization ordinance (hereafter “the ordinance”) which had as its purpose the control and stabilization of rents charged by owners of residential rental property in mobile home parks. ~~The at rent stabilization—~~ordinance has remained in effect to the present time. In order for the ordinance to achieve its objective of controlling the amount of rent charged by mobile home park owners for the rental of mobile home spaces, the ordinance provided, among other things, that rules and regulations may be promulgated by the County as necessary. Humboldt County Code § 9101-23.

As such, the purpose of these guidelines is to assist mobile home park owners and renters in understanding key terms of the ~~County’s Mobile Home Rent Stabilization O~~ ordinance. The guidelines do not supersede the terms of the ordinance as set forth in Title IX, Division 10 of the Humboldt County Code, and should be read in context with the provisions of the ordinance.

1) Application of the Ordinance to Recreational Vehicles

The ordinance defines “mobile home” and “mobile home park” broadly and does not import the definitions of “mobile home” or “recreational vehicle” found in state law. (compare HCC 9101-3(d-e) with Civil Code Section 798.3.) For the purposes of applying the ordinance, recreational vehicles may be considered “mobile homes” in many situations. The key distinction in the ordinance is between “permanent” and “transient” occupancy. Therefore, an area or tract of land where ten or more lots are rented or leased to accommodate stays of more than 9 months in a transportable structure designed or equipped with a single dwelling unit is subject to the ordinance, regardless of whether that structure would be defined as a mobile home or recreational vehicle under state law.

Alternative 1

(compare HCC 9101-3(d-e) with Civil Code Section 798.3.) For the purposes of applying the ordinance, recreational vehicles may be considered “mobile homes” in many situations. The key distinction in the ordinance is between “permanent” and “transient” occupancy. Therefore, an area or tract of land where ten or more lots are rented or leased to accommodate stays of more than 30 days in a transportable structure designed or equipped with a single dwelling unit is subject to the ordinance, regardless of whether that structure would be defined as a mobile home or recreational vehicle under state law.
