

Map showing the location of domestic water supply springs and the existing agricultural well

The red dots are the approximate locations of the springs which provide domestic water supply to adjacent properties in the Overland Subdivision

The yellow dot is the approximate location of the existing agricultural well

