MPT will provide to the above-named worker, the Claims defense and Claims payment services described in Article VIII of the MPT Agreement, subject to all terms, conditions, and exclusions therein, and subject to payment of all obligations required thereby, for any Occurrence, upon which the Claim is based, arising on or after the above-mentioned Effective Date, in the conduct of Professional Services by such worker, provided that such Worker was acting within the course and scope of his or her duties and licensure as an actual employee of such member or entity at the time of the Occurrence.

This Certificate of Professional Liability Coverage is not a contract of insurance or of liability protection services as between MPT and the above-named worker and does not afford membership in the Cooperative of American Physicians, Inc. (CAP) to such worker. This Certificate of Professional Liability Coverage does not amend, extend or alter the professional liability protection services afforded by the MPT Agreement to the above-named Member or Entity. Notwithstanding any requirement, term or condition of any contract or other document with respect to which this Certificate of Professional Liability Coverage may be issued or pertain, the professional liability protection services afforded by the MPT Agreement described herein are subject to all terms, conditions, and exclusions of the MPT Agreement.

The limit of liability through MPT is $2 Million per Occurrence/$4 Million Aggregate. Such limit of liability is shared with the MPT Member.

A shared limit of liability means that the MPT Member shares his/her limit of liability with the Worker for any Occurrence upon which a Claim against the MPT Member and the Worker is based.

This Certificate shall remain in force unless cancelled or amended by MPT, the MPT Member or the MPT Entity. This Certificate of Professional Liability Coverage is incorporated by this reference into the MPT Agreement.

MPT does not track Claims asserted against employees or other related persons.

The above-named MPT Member or MPT Entity is responsible for notifying MPT and all recipients of this Certificate of Professional Liability Coverage in the event of the termination of the employment of or other relationship with the above-named worker. Such Member or Entity is also responsible for notifying all recipients of this Certificate of Professional Liability Coverage in the event that any term of this Certificate of Professional Liability Coverage is modified.
