Proclamation

In recognition of

Andy Mills
City of Eureka Chief of Police

Whereas, Chief Andy Mills was sworn in as Chief of Police for the City of Eureka on November 4, 2013; and

Whereas, Chief Mills came to Eureka with extensive experience as Western Division Commander for the San Diego Police Department responsible for patrol and investigations for over 140,000 residents; and

Whereas, Chief Mills reorganized the Eureka Police Department that allowed for greater efficiencies while focusing the organization as a Community Oriented Police Department; and

Whereas, Chief Mills was a leading force working with homeless and street outreach initiatives, such as the MIST (Mobile Intervention Service Team) Pairing EPD Officers with County social workers; and

Whereas, Chief Mills is an inspiring leader to the City of Eureka Team who will be missed.

Now, therefore, we Mayor Frank Jäger, on behalf of the Eureka City Council, and 4th District Supervisor Virginia Bass wish Chief Andy Mills and his lovely wife Cathy much success and happiness in their new adventure.
