DISCUSSION:

The Humboldt Network of Family Resource Centers serves as a collaborative hub where local nonprofits can share best practices, build relationships and form coalitions to address community concerns. Its diverse membership includes healthcare systems, educational institutions, tribal entities and community leaders. Their mission states, "Through collaboration, mutual support, and respect, our family strengthening network improves child, family, and community health and well-being."

Today, the network is here to present to the Board and the community an overview of who they are, the work they do and the outcomes they value most.
