ATTACHMENT A

241-2. County Administrative Officer.

There is hereby created in and for the County of Humboldt a position to be known and designated as that of "County Administrative Officer." The Board of Supervisors, in governing the County of Humboldt, establishes the policies, procedures, rules, regulations and Code sections that are to be followed, and the County Administrative Officer is responsible for carrying out the decisions of the Board and seeing that policies and procedures are implemented and executed. (Ord. 701, § 2, 12/10/1969)

241-3. Appointment and Tenure.

The County Administrative Officer shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the Board of Supervisors. (Ord. 701, § 3, 12/10/1969)

241-4. Qualifications.

In addition to other qualifications provided by law or Code section, the County Administrative Officer shall have demonstrated administrative ability evidenced by at least five (5) years of responsible administrative or executive experience requiring the planning and execution of work programs or administrative operations, the budgeting and control of expenditures, and the coordination of varied activities; at least two (2) of said five (5) years shall have involved responsibilities for reporting to or working with a legislative body or policy-making board. (Ord. 820, § 1, 1/11/1972)

241-5. Salary and Allowances for Department.

The salary and benefits of the County Administrative Officer shall be determined by the Board of Supervisors. In order to implement the carrying out of duties, the County Administrative Officer shall have for the department such funds and personnel as are authorized by the Board of Supervisors. (Ord. 701, § 5, 12/10/1969; Ord. 2274, 5/21/2002)

241-6. Duties and Responsibilities.

Subject to the control and direction of the Board of Supervisors, the County Administrative Officer shall:

(a) Administration. Administer, enforce and carry out the policies, rules, regulations, orders and Code sections as implemented and directed by the Board of Supervisors relating to the administration of County departments, services, institutions or districts, and shall act as the primary advisor to the Board of Supervisors on all matters related to the efficient and effective administration of county government. (Ord. 2274, 5/21/2002)

(b) Agenda Management. Review and make recommendations on board agenda items; make periodic reports to the board on county matters and assure that items proposed for placement on the board's agenda are in-line with Board adopted policies and government code, complete and sufficient for board decision-making; in consult and with the approval of the Board Chair, the County Administrative Officer may withhold items from an agenda as necessary. This provision does not apply to members of the Board of Supervisors, each of whom has an unfettered ability to place items on the board agenda.

(bc) Supervision. Supervise the general affairs of the county as charged directed by the Board of Supervisors and provide general oversight to supervise all departments, services, institutions, and districts of the County for whom or for which the Board of Supervisors is required to adopt an annual budget, except with the exception of the Office of County Counsel; The County Administrative Officer shall also have the right authority to report on or to discuss to and confer with the Board of Supervisors on any matter concerning the operations or affairs of such the departments, services, institutions, or districts under County Administrative Officer supervision Board's jurisdiction. (Ord. 2274, 5/21/2002)

The County Administrative Officer, or the designated Assistant County Administrative Officer, shall exercise direct administrative and personnel oversight of the Agricultural Commissioner, Director of Child Support Services, Library Director, and Public Defender. This authority includes conducting annual performance evaluations (with the Board Chair participation) and administering disciplinary actions as necessary, but does not extend to appointments or terminations. At the time of appointment of a new County Administrative Officer or any of the appointed department directors, or as needed for operational efficiency, the Board of Supervisors may reevaluate the scope of authority granted under this section.

The County Administrative Officer shall assist the Board in scheduling and evaluating appointed Department Head performance who remain under their supervisory authority. The CAO shall confer with department heads as necessary to discuss any issues noted and to suggest remedial action.

The County Administrative Officer shall confer with and regularly apprise the Board Chair of significant developments, challenges, or concerns arising within any department. In addition, the County Administrative Officer will provide to the full Board, on a quarterly basis, a written report addressing departmental performance in the areas of budget management, operational effectiveness, and personnel administration. These reports shall highlight notable achievements, identify emerging issues, and recommend corrective actions or policy adjustments as appropriate to ensure alignment with Board priorities and countywide strategic goals.

(hd) Recommendations Concerning Appointments and Dismissals. Upon direction from the Board, the County Administrative Officer shall recommend one or more qualified persons for appointment to any County office, department, service, institution or district when the Board of Supervisors is the appointing power, prior to the appointment being made. In the event that the County Administrative Officer, after investigation, is of the opinion that any appointee of the Board of Supervisors to a County office, department, service, institution or district is not properly carrying out his or her duties, the County Administrative Officer shall make recommendations to the Board of Supervisors regarding the continued employment status of said appointee including but not limited to reassignment, reduction, or discipline up to and including termination.

(ee) Coordination of Resources. Coordinate the administration of resource allocations in all departments, services, institutions or districts under his or her supervision of the county with the power and responsibility and authority to transfer assign work areas, space planning, technology infrastructure, equipment, machinery, furnishings or supplies from one department, service or institution to another, and to make recommendations to the Board of Supervisors for the temporary transfer of such personnel between departments, services or institutions as are necessary to perform the functions and accomplish the work of the County with the greatest efficiency. Significant structural or organizational changes will require Board authority and the appropriate budget modifications.

The County Administrative Officer shall coordinate with the Director of Emergency Services in directing all county operations in the event of a disaster or emergency when there is not sufficient opportunity for the Board of Supervisors to appropriately act. Nothing in this section shall infringe on the authority, granted through state or federal law, to elected and appointed officers to carry out certain functions.
