Subject: Real World

What is good for political reasons is not always good for everything

Being of sound mind and body and a thinker, I see Trump stirring things up
As I have said over and over, I was young once with a skull of mush and bought into a lot of B.S.
At 73 years of age, an older wiser person, living in the real world with a sound mind and body,
I find many thoughts being a lot of B.S.

In my world as someone who was once in charge, I would listen to those under me
And
If they presented a better way to go, I would let them have at it
But
If my experience showed a better way to go, I would make them do as I learned to do it

I find experience, those working for a living, and Rural Areas being SOL (Especially with tax increases growing larger)

Registered voters are a part of the population
Especially in California and populated areas, accepted B.S. further splits the vote
This lets a voting minority determine what happens to many species and humans
Having equipment in woods and getting ride of many dead trees helps fire fighting.

As in the bootleg days, there is expectation marijuana will become legal
And if this happens, big growers will take over
For a short time as low income timber and ranching industries fade away
Humboldt County and other rural areas will be in the clover.

All forms of media, politicians, those who have it made, all over the place legalese
Fourth Branch of Government (regulators), and other humans
Are providing my kids, their kids, and other humans some rough going

It is "not good" humans are on all sides of the fence
As an older and wiser person who is at the end of his life and has been hit on the head many times
You can ignore what I have learned which includes life not being fair and balanced for everything
I believe many humans will be sorry for what is coming

Real world realties can be tough
