PROCLAMATION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS COUNTY OF HUMBOLDT

WHEREAS, domestic and intimate partner violence remains a serious national, state, and community social issue, and is not confined to any group of people. Domestic violence crosses all economic, ethnic, sexual preference, and age categories; and

WHEREAS, the crime of domestic violence violates an individual's dignity, security, and humanity with the systematic use of power and control through physical, emotional, sexual, psychological, economic abuse; and its victims can face serious life threatening injuries, mental, emotional problems, and death; and

WHEREAS, children who witness domestic violence are at greater risk for lifelong behavior problems, alcohol and other drug abuse and other health problems, and becoming abusers and victims in their adult intimate relationships; and

WHEREAS, in 1977, now celebrating 40 years of service to the community, Humboldt Domestic Violence Services (HDVS) was conceived by a small group of concerned local women who provided lifesaving emergency services to battered women and their children and became actively involved in prevention issues and public policies of the Domestic Violence Movement in their Community, State and Nation; and

WHEREAS, Humboldt Domestic Violence Services (HDVS) offers services and direct support for survivors and their children of intimate partner violence regardless of gender, sexual orientation, race, color, religious affiliation, age, disability, education, marital status, amnesty, national origin or culture; and last year alone received over 2,400 crisis and support line calls and requests for services, and continues an ongoing collaboration and partnerships with the community-at-large, social service providers and county agencies, local tribes, the Latino Communities, Humboldt State University, LGBTQI communities, North Coast Rape Crisis Team, the District Attorney's office and Victim Witness, the California Partnership to End Domestic Violence, first responders and law enforcement, as well as, outreach and development of public education programs that enlist men as allies in changing the environment and mindset that has historically allowed Domestic and Intimate Partner Violence to be viewed as acceptable.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the Humboldt Board of Supervisors designates the month of October 2017 to be DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH, and supports Humboldt Domestic Violence Services efforts in working to improve community safety through multi-faceted approaches via networking, education to break the cycle of domestic and intimate partner violence through education, services, while providing direct empowerment services to survivors and their children and our community-at-large.
