HUMBOLDT COUNTY PLANNING COMMITTEE APPLICATION

My interest in land use and development began with my marriage to a self-employed building contractor. Partnering in this construction business, I helped develop and build a small subdivision of 35 homes in Glendora, California. As part of this activity, I also completed a real estate licensing course. I understand that zoning is the method of planning and regulating the development of all physical locations within a jurisdiction. Planning Commission decisions affect our ability to have a good, sound and healthy community, which is deeply important to me as a 40-year resident of Humboldt County. Agriculture, timber, waterfront, business, neighborhoods, environmental issues, safety and health are all impacted by zoning requirements. As a Planning Commissioner I will represent all within the Humboldt County jurisdiction equally, fairly, and with accountability and public transparency. Thank you for your consideration.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a story of growth and change. It begins with the first people who lived on this continent, and continues through the years of exploration, settlement, and the struggle for independence. The story is one of a people who have built a great nation from a small group of pioneers. The history of the United States is a story of the triumph of the human spirit over adversity. It is a story of the power of the American dream, and the strength of the American people. The history of the United States is a story of the values that have shaped our nation, and the principles that have guided us through the years. It is a story of the courage and sacrifice of our forefathers, and the hope and faith of our future generations. The history of the United States is a story of the land we call home, and the people who call it theirs. It is a story of the love and loyalty that bind us together, and the dreams and aspirations that drive us forward. 1. The first step in the process of identifying a problem is to define the problem. This involves identifying the symptoms of the problem and determining the scope of the problem. Once the problem has been defined, the next step is to identify the causes of the problem. This involves identifying the factors that are contributing to the problem and determining the underlying causes. Once the causes have been identified, the next step is to develop a plan to address the problem. This involves identifying the actions that need to be taken to address the problem and determining the resources that will be needed to implement the plan. Finally, the last step in the process is to implement the plan and monitor the results. This involves putting the plan into action and tracking the progress of the plan to ensure that the problem is being addressed effectively.
