

Suggested Climate Advisory Committee Membership

- Local community organizations focused on conservation issues pertaining to forestry and wild lands;
- Local community organizations focused on conservation issues pertaining to transportation and land use;
- Local community organizations focused on other climate or conservation issues;
- Local businesses or business organizations in the transportation sector;
- Local businesses or business organizations in the real estate and development sector;
- Local businesses or business organizations in the residential and/or commercial building energy efficiency and renewable energy sector;
- Local businesses or business organizations in the manufacturing and/or agriculture sector;
- Local tribes and community organizations focused on environmental justice;
- Local educational or research institutions;
- The Redwood Coast Energy Authority;
- Other local governmental agencies or jurisdictions.