DISCUSSION:
Since 2013, Richard England has provided required services for the county in upholding the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA). The services include the review of case records, police reports, case notes, Discovery and conducting interviews as necessary to complete an evaluation.

The expert witness opinion, as given in written reports, is to determine:

- Whether continued custody by the parent(s) or Indian custodian will likely result in serious physical or emotional harm to the child
- If placement preference has been followed in accordance with ICWA.
- If active efforts were met to prevent the breakup of an Indian family as required by ICWA

FINANCIAL IMPACT:

The maximum cost payable under this Agreement for calendar year 2020 is $49,000. The county has the option of extending this Agreement under the same terms and conditions for a additional two (2) one-year calendar terms. The maximum cost payable under the life of this Agreement shall not exceed $147,000. Funds have been included in Fund 1160, budget unit 508-Child Welfare Services (CWS) for the fiscal year 2019-2020 budget cycle and will be included going forward should the county extend the Agreement. There is no specific funding source connected to this Agreement. All Social Service Branch programs will share the costs associated with this Agreement. Cost sharing is based on a percent to total by program formula which is established on a quarterly basis through the County Expense Claim (CEC) submitted to the California Department of Social Services.

STRATEGIC FRAMEWORK:

This action supports your Board's Strategic Framework by enforcing laws and regulations to protect residents and protecting vulnerable populations.

OTHER AGENCY INVOLVEMENT:

ALTERNATIVES TO STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS:

The Board could choose not to approve the Agreement, which is not recommended as it would jeopardize meeting the requirements of the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA).
