SOURCE OF FUNDING:

Public Health Funds (1175), Office of Performance Improvement & Accreditation (400-003)

DISCUSSION:

The purpose of this Grant is to provide support to County of Humboldt Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) Public Health Staff in strengthening the Public Health workforce as well as advancing health equity and/or eliminating health disparities. This funding includes the following five projects:

Project #1: 1.0 Funding Public Health Equity Coordinator

Public Health will continue to fund our Public Health Equity Coordinator partially in Fiscal Year 23/24 and fully at 1.0 starting Fiscal Year 24/25 through the end of the allocation term November 30, 2027.

Project #2: 0.8 Funding of a Program Coordinator

This Program Coordinator position will help with Equity initiatives, support the Equity coordinator, and activities and planning in relation to our Community Health Assessment and Community Health Improvement Plan.

Project #3: Mentorship Program Incentives

Public Health will have identified resources, incentives, and training opportunities to staff participating as mentors in a mentorship program to begin in January 2024.

Project #4: Identify Workforce Development Incentive Priorities

Using staff survey data, Public Health will identify at least two priority areas for Workforce Development incentives and activities. Areas for consideration may include incentives to participate as a trainer in Core Competency trainings, educational materials, staff recognition prizes, snacks or other incentives for PH all staff biannual meetings.

Project #5: Equity Assessment and Planning

Public Health will partner with Facilitating Power to coordinate and facilitate a series of workshops designed to assess and strategize around health equity goals for Public Health and community partners.

This agreement is coming to your Board after the start of the term due to staff changes which delayed work and progress towards completing the necessary documents.
