DISCUSSION:

On Nov. 7, 1995, the Board of Supervisors adopted Resolution 95-97a, which authorized the Humboldt County Planning Department or the California Department of Conservation to use funds pledged by the Humboldt County Department of Public Works ("Public Works") to reclaim any surface mining operations left un-reclaimed by Public Works. The amounts pledged for the listed quarries must be reviewed and, if necessary, updated annually in accordance with Public Resources Code Section 2773.1(a)(3). Public Works staff prepared the attached updated resolution for the Board's consideration.

California's Surface Mining and Reclamation Act (SMARA) requires that all surface mining operations are reclaimed after rock removal is completed and that all mining agencies pledge funds in the form of a financial assurance to guarantee that reclamation will occur. The attached resolution states that Public Works shall pledge funds in the form of gas tax revenues in amounts necessary to reclaim upland quarries and gravel quarries, which are active, and in use by Public Works. Public Works has never failed to complete reclamation of one of its surface mining operations in over 40 years of operations and expects to continue this record of reclaiming its aggregate resource sites at the termination of use. If Public Works failed to complete reclamation of one of its active sites, the Humboldt County Planning and Building Department or the California Department of Conservation would be involved in hiring a private contractor to reclaim the site and these funds would be withdrawn accordingly for performing the reclamation work.

Accordingly, staff recommends approval of the attached resolution to allow Public Works to meet the financial assurance requirements of the Surface Mining and Reclamation Act.
