DISCUSSION:

The Humboldt County Sheriff and the CDCR Warden have long recognized that mutual aid and cooperation in response to a natural disaster, critical incident, or other emergency can be strengthened through collaboration. By establishing and maintaining an agreement of mutual aid, both agencies have an improved ability to respond to and sufficiently deal with incidents throughout both jurisdictions, effectively improving overall public safety. An MOU was developed to confirm the framework for this cooperative relationship (Attachment 2).

FINANCIAL IMPACT:

The attached MOU is an agreement to share services and facilities, including but not limited to security, rescue, relief and communications during a disaster or emergency. The agreement does not include financial terms. However, the party receiving aid will be responsible for providing supplies and material, such as gasoline, food, and water for on-site use of equipment and for personnel who are engaged in providing aid. Responding to a request for mutual aid may also result in overtime costs for Sheriff's Office staff, though those costs could be partially offset if the Governor were to declare an emergency.

STRATEGIC FRAMEWORK:

This action supports your Board's Strategic Framework by enforcing laws and regulations to protect residents and building interjurisdictional and regional cooperation.

OTHER AGENCY INVOLVEMENT:

CDCR Pelican Bay State Prison

ALTERNATIVES TO STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS:

The Board of Supervisors could choose not to approve the agreement between the County of Humboldt and the CDCR for mutual crisis response services, however, this is not recommended as a denial of the proposed MOU could jeopardize public safety.
