DISCUSSION:

Lead is a toxic metal that was used in many products. Lead is linked to neurological and physiological disorders. Many lead-based products have been phased out, but the effects continue in the environment. Risk factors include older houses with lead-based paint, some hobbies, consumer products, remedies, and foods. Children under age six are especially vulnerable to lead poisoning. The CLPPP program provides education on mitigating these risks as well as linkage to support and care for children with elevated blood lead levels.

The CLPPP program involves all divisions of Public Health. This includes Public Health Nursing, Environmental Health, Healthy Communities Division, Child Health and Disability Prevention (CHDP) and the Public Health Laboratory. Through this coordinated effort, the program provides nursing case management, environmental surveillance, home visiting, education, and outreach.

The CLPPP program receives the results of elevated blood level tests performed in Humboldt County. Based on criteria from the state, CLPPP Public Health Nurses work with parents to provide linkages to care, referrals and case management to the families of children with elevated blood levels.

Additionally, CLPPP Environmental Health professionals investigate the sources of lead in the child's environment and provide follow-up to see the sources of lead are corrected.

The last state standard agreement with CDPH for CLPPP was passed by the Board on Sept. 29, 2020 and the agreement before your Board today will allow DHHS to continue CLPPP services throughout Humboldt County.

This agreement is coming to Your Board after the effective date due to late receipt from CDPH.
