DIVISION 11. RESORT IMPROVEMENT DISTRICTS [13000 - 13233] (Division 11 added by Stats. 1961, Ch. 2069.)

CHAPTER 3. General Administrative Provisions [13031 - 13041]. (Chapter 3 added by Stats. 1961, Ch. 2069.)

13031. The board of supervisors is the governing body of the district, and, unless otherwise provided in this division, the provisions of the County Service Area Law (Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 25210) of Part 2 of Division 2 of Title 3 of the Government Code) shall apply to the conduct of the business of the district.

(Amended by Stats. 2008, Ch. 158, Sec. 14. Effective January 1, 2009.)

13032. If deemed advisable by the board of supervisors a board of directors for the district may be formed.

(Added by Stats. 1961, Ch. 2069.)

13033. The board of directors of any district formed pursuant to this division shall have such powers as the board of supervisors may from time to time give to them. The board of supervisors may grant to the board of directors of the district any powers herein given to the board of supervisors.

(Added by Stats. 1961, Ch. 2069.)

13034. The district board shall consist either of five members, four of which shall be elected from the district and the fifth which shall be the supervisor who represents the area in which the district or major portion thereof is located; or, if the district so elects, by unanimous vote of the directors, the district board shall consist of five members who shall be elected from the district.

(Amended by Stats. 1973, Ch. 531.)

13034.5. If a district elects pursuant to Section 13034 to have the district board consist of five members elected from the district, the district board may call a special election for the purpose of electing a district board member to succeed the supervisorial member on the district board. A special election called pursuant to this section shall be called and conducted in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 13050) of this division. A person elected to a district board at a special election pursuant to this section shall hold office until the next succeeding general district election and until the election and qualification of his successor. Thereafter, the term of office of such elected board member shall be four years.

If a special election is not called, the successor to the supervisorial member shall be elected at the next general district election.

Any supervisor serving as a district board member when an election is held pursuant to this section shall remain in office until the election and qualification of his successor.

Any district electing to call a special election pursuant to the provisions of this section shall reimburse any local government for any costs incurred by such local government by reason of the provisions of this section.

(Added by Stats. 1973, Ch. 531.)

13035. Exclusive of the supervisorial member, the directors shall be voters in the district.

(Amended by Stats. 1997, Ch. 140, Sec. 2. Effective January 1, 1998.)

13035.1. The number of directors elected by voters in the district at the first general district election held after January 1, 1998, shall be equal to the number of directors whose terms have expired by the date of that election.

Any director whose term has not expired by the date of that election shall continue to serve until the person's term of office expires and the person's successor has been elected by the voters in the district. At the first general district election held after January 1, 1998, and at all subsequent general district elections, the form of the ballot and the conduct of the election shall comply with the requirements of the Uniform District Election Law (Part 4 (commencing with Section 10500) of Division 10 of the Elections Code) governing resident voting elections.

(Added by Stats. 1997, Ch. 140, Sec. 3. Effective January 1, 1998.)

13036. All vacancies in the office of director shall be filled by appointment by the board of supervisors.

(Added by Stats. 1961, Ch. 2069.)

13037. An appointment to fill a vacancy in the office of director shall be for the unexpired term of the office in which the vacancy exists, and until the election or appointment of his successor.

(Added by Stats. 1961, Ch. 2069.)

13038. Once each year, the district board shall elect one of its members to serve as president and shall appoint a secretary, who may be a member of the board.

(Amended by Stats. 1968, Ch. 302.)

13039. All sessions of the district board shall be public.

(Added by Stats. 1961, Ch. 2069.)

13040. The district board by resolution, shall provide for the time and place of its meetings, the manner of calling special meetings and shall establish rules for its proceedings.

(Added by Stats. 1961, Ch. 2069.)

13041. (a) Any compensation provided pursuant to this section shall comply with Articles 2.3 (commencing with Section 53232) and 2.4 (commencing with Section 53234) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

(b) The district board may authorize each director to receive compensation not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25) for each meeting of the board attended by the director within the State of California, not exceeding two meetings in any calendar month, plus reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of these duties.

(c) The district board may authorize a director to receive for performing duties for the district other than attending board meetings:

(1) Not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25) for each day, but payment is limited to five days in any calendar month as to each director other than the president.

(2) Actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of these duties.

(d) The secretary shall receive compensation set by the board, which compensation shall be in lieu of any other compensation to which the secretary may be entitled for attendance at meetings pursuant to this section.

(Amended by Stats. 2009, Ch. 332, Sec. 79. (SB 113) Effective January 1, 2010.)
